From Our Own (Hispanic) Wells:
Spirituality in a Time of Change

Major cultural and demographic changes are redefining the U.S. Catholic experience in our day. Nearly half of all Catholics in the United States self-identify as Hispanic/Latino. Change demands the cultivation of spiritual practices that help us to embrace new ways of being community. Dr. Ospino will share details about the Hispanic Catholic experience in our country and draw key spiritual insights from that same experience to strengthen U.S. Catholicism in the twenty-first century.

Hosffman Ospino is an Associate Professor of Theology and Religious Education at Boston College School of Theology and Ministry. He has authored and edited 13 books on faith formation, evangelization, and Hispanic Catholicism. He is actively involved in ministry with immigrant communities in the Boston area.
